Dr. Rajendra Kumar Anayath narrated the career challenges and successes, encountered by him. He also pointed out that his choice of printing technology has taken him to the unimaginable heights. Beginning as a diploma engineer, he worked hard to achieve graduation, post graduation and doctorate, to reach the pinnacle of Head post in Print Media Academy. The secret of his success is nothing but his involvement, diligence and interest. He made it very clear that luck is always spelled as HARD WORK. He also encouraged the students to develop the communication skills without which they cannot clarify their expertise. He also added that continuous practice will certainly fructify their endeavors. Thiru Ramakrishnan also shared his experience positively with the students to motivate for better performance.
